Tiffany

Plant Patent No. 1304

1955 HYBRID TEA ALL-AMERICA
ROSE SELECTIONS AWARD WINNER

Tiffany's extremely large blooms and vigorous growth are sure to make it the most popular new hybrid tea rose of the decade.

Buds are long pointed, golden yellow at the base, shading to a deep pink. The flowers open to perfectly formed, double, high centered blooms with petals of heavy texture and exceptional lasting qualities.

It is not uncommon to see stems 20 to 24 inches long. This rose is especially noted for its outstanding fragrance. The plant has beautiful dark green foliage and upright habit of growth. Named to honor Tiffany & Co., New York, known the world over for excellent quality.

CIRCUS

1956 AARS Award Winner (floribunda)

This floribunda has a yellow and red bud which changes through orange-buff flushed with pink and then ends red. It is truly a circus of color through its blooming cycle. The plant is of medium height and quite compact in growth.

ROSE GROWERS HANDBOOK

Because of the tremendous demand for our Buyers Guide for All America Roses last year, we are now preparing an even more comprehensive booklet to include many more subjects of general interest to rose growers.

In addition to being a buyers guide, our new Rose Growers booklet will contain information on care and cultural practices pertaining to various climates as well as informative articles on rose history—all beautifully illustrated.

The booklet will again be edited by our own Robert V. Lindquist, originator of Lilibet and Tiffany, with leading rosarians as contributing editors.

Here's a fine way to make friends with your customers. This 24 page booklet is yours in lots of 100 or more at a fraction of its cost.

With every order we will furnish newspaper mats that you can use in your ads, asking people to come in for their copy. You can give them to local garden clubs to distribute to their members as well as your customers. Order your supply today! You'll not only make friends, but sales too! Per 100...$10.

ROSES IN COLOR

7" x 10"—$3.00 Assortment
